

Public Information Release

For More Information, Call:

Deputy Chief Rick Hart
952-292-2686 Cell
952-563-8680 Desk

For Release Immediately
December 30, 2014

Residential Burglaries-Reward Offered

In November and December of 2014, there have been a number of residential burglaries reported in the Twin Cities Metropolitan area. In many of these burglaries, various electronic and jewelry items have been stolen. In one particular burglary in west Bloomington, forced entry was made from suspect(s) breaking a rear door; high-end Tiffany Jewelry items that are valued at over $60,000 were stolen and have not been recovered (photos attached).

The Bloomington Police Department is requesting the public's assistance and asking anyone with information about these burglaries to contact Detective Cory Cardenas at 952-563-8826 or by email at ccardenas@bloomingtonMN.gov

A reward of up to $2,500 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any suspect(s) in these burglaries is being offered by Crime Stoppers of Minnesota. Crime Stoppers tip line is 1-800-222-TIPS (8477). All information submitted through Crime Stoppers is anonymous and eligible for this reward.