

CITY OF BLOOMINGTON 2023 Cultural Arts Grant Funding GENERAL OPERATING SUPPORT Request for Proposals

In accordance with the following goals, the City of Bloomington is offering cultural arts funding grants to support general operating expenses for Bloomington-centric non-profit organizations or arts-related educational institutions in 2023:

GOALS

- Provide cultural arts opportunities for Bloomington residents.
- Bring cultural arts activities to people who may not otherwise have access to the arts.
- Make cultural arts opportunities more accessible, equitable and inclusive for all.
- Make Bloomington a more desirable place to live and work by encouraging a thriving, vital cultural arts community.
- Use City funding to leverage additional donations from individuals, businesses, and charitable organizations.
- Facilitate high-quality, cost-effective community arts programming
- Encourage development and expansion of the cultural arts in the community by using City funding to stimulate and promote additional activity.
- Promote cultural arts activities at the Bloomington Center or the Arts, in the parks and throughout the community.
- Promote collaboration among various arts and cultural groups and other community entities to the mutual benefit of the arts community and the City so that all residents will have an opportunity to be fully engaged in Bloomington's cultural arts community.
- Provide opportunities for cultural arts groups and organizations to expand to new audiences, increase programs and improve their community reach.
- Provide general operating support to high quality, established cultural arts groups and organizations that produce, present, or exhibit works of art; to groups and organizations that provide a broad range of services to artists and art appreciators; and to organizations that make enriching, engaging, educational and entertaining cultural arts opportunities available to people of all ages, abilities and interests in the Bloomington community.

ELIGIBILITY

Who is eligible to apply for Cultural Arts Support Funding – GENERAL OPERATING SUPPORT from the City of Bloomington?

REVIEW PROCESS

Cultural Arts Funding will be allocated on a competitive basis, based on applications submitted by eligible organizations.

- All complete applications will be evaluated by a review panel that includes city staff, residents, individuals with arts programming experience, and a member of the Parks, Arts & Recreation Commission (PARC).
- The review panel will make funding recommendations to the Bloomington City Council based on how well each proposal meets the cultural arts funding goals outlined on page 1.
- The review panel reserves the right to award grants in amounts less than requested based on available funds.
- The review panel's funding recommendations may be appealed by applicants solely on alleged procedural errors. There is no right of appeal based on the size of the grant awarded or on disagreements with the review panel's assessment of the application. Applicants must request an appeal in writing within thirty (30) days of notification of the Council decision.
- All funded applicants will be required to submit a final report before reapplying.

APPLICANT/ORGANIZATION INFORMATION (3 pages maximum)

1. Summarize your applicants/organization’s development and history.
2. Briefly describe the make-up of your group or organization including number of board members, staff, volunteers, artists/participants, and patrons/audience.
3. What is your group or organization’s mission and goals? Specifically explain how they relate to the City’s goals with cultural arts funding as outlined on page 1.
4. Briefly describe your group or organization’s current programs and activities, including how you provide access to the arts specifically to the Bloomington community and/or how you attract arts patrons to Bloomington.
5. What is your group or organization’s relationship with other arts and culture organizations and community entities located in Bloomington and/or working in the community? Who specifically in Bloomington does your group/organization work with (ex: public schools, libraries, senior centers, faith organizations, community centers, other non-profits, etc.)?

6. How is your group or organization collaborating and promoting harmonious relationships with other cultural arts groups and/or organizations (either in or outside Bloomington)?
7. The City of Bloomington is committed to ensuring equitable access to programs and services and implementing intentional strategies to engage communities most affected by racial inequities and injustice in ways that foster trust and ensure all residents will have an opportunity to be fully engaged. Please highlight how your organization is working towards racial equity in Bloomington through cultural arts opportunities? What strategies, practices and initiatives are you inclusive and equitable regarding leadership opportunities, hiring practices, organizational governance, participation in programs/activities, volunteer opportunities and strategic planning?

1. Please highlight recent awards, community recognition and new or different activities for your group or organization (within the past 1-2 years).

ENGAGEMENT NARRATIVE (2 pages maximum)

1. If applicable, please provide evidence (not aims or assertions) that the applicant is actively and authentically making efforts and seeking out ways to engage diverse, minority and under-represented populations in the City of Bloomington. Who are you working with and how are you demonstrating these efforts?
2. Briefly describe the diversity of the board, staff, artists and members within your group or organization.
3. What efforts are you making to recruit, and meaningfully engage, a diverse group of volunteers for support with operations, programs, and activities?
4. What efforts are you making to reach underserved participants (individuals, groups, or communities) and what is the evidence that the groups to be reached are underserved?
5. What efforts are you making to reduce, overcome or eliminate barriers to participation in your cultural arts opportunities?

EVALUATION (2 pages maximum)

1. Describe your criteria for success. What specifically do you want to happen because of your activities? Describe BOTH immediate (short-term) and long-term strategic goals.
2. Specifically, what forms of evaluation and measurement (surveys, focus groups, social media feedback, online metrics, participation numbers, ticket sales, etc.) do you use to capture feedback and measure your success? Please describe BOTH subjective and objective measures.

3. Who is involved in assessing your programmatic evaluation and criteria for success (board, participants, audience, etc.)?
4. How will you use your evaluation results to guide your future activities and organizational initiatives?

ATTACHMENTS

Provide the following documents with your application narrative:

- a. Board of Directors List: Complete the form attached to this application. Note board members who live or work in Bloomington and only list current and active members of the board.
