Unit 1 was driving w/b on 98th Street in the left lane in the 100 block. Pedestrians were on the north side of the marked crosswalk in the 100 block. The pedestrians activated the yellow, flashing, crosswalk lights. Traffic in the right, w/b lane stopped at the crosswalk and the pedestrians started crossing s/b over 98th street in the crosswalk.

Unit 1 did not stop in time for the crosswalk and struck unit 2, knocking her to the ground. She had minor scrape/bruising on her arm but denied medical attention.

Driver of unit 1 admitted he didn't notice the crosswalk as he was watching traffic but tried to stop when he saw the pedestrians.

Witness Information:

Name	Sex
JACOBSON, DUSTIN	M

- Vehicle #2 was southbound on Normandale Blvd turning left (east) onto 102nd St.
- Vehicle #1 was southbound on Normandale and claimed that traffic was stopped at the 102nd St light.
- Driver #1 stated that her brakes were not functioning properly and she was not slowing in time so she made an evasive maneuver to avoid hitting other southbound vehicles.
- She moved to the left turn lane and was still unable to stop so she struck vehicle #2.
- Driver #2 was complaining of neck pain from the rear end collision, but refused medical attention.
- Witness was sitting westbound on 102nd St at Normandale.
- He observed vehicles starting to go southbound like they just got a green light.
- He then saw vehicle #1 strike the back of vehicle #2.
- Vehicle #1 went into oncoming lanes of traffic and came to stop about 50 yards south of the intersection facing south in the northbound lanes.
- Vehicle #1 was towed due to claims of brake issues.
- Vehicle #2 was not towed.

- Vehicle #2 was stalled on the west side of a roundabout.
- Vehicle #1 attempted to get around the vehicle on the left, but due to having to turn at the roundabout, scrapped the driver's side of vehicle #1 and broke sideview mirror.
- Vehicle #2 had run out of gas and battery died so it was unable to be moved.
- Minor damage to both vehicles.
- State patrol confirmed that CVI did not need to come to the scene because the damage was very minor.
- End of report.

Upon arrival, I observed two vehicles parked on the furthest east lane of 12th Ave S, both facing north. I spoke with the driver, of Unit 1 who was standing by the passenger side door of vehicle (MN LIC/ LVJ461). She stated the following:

She was driving west bound on American Blvd E.
She got into the turn lane to merge onto 12th Ave S north bound.
She stopped in the merge lane to wait for traffic to clear.
She was struck from behind by another vehicle.
She pulled over to the side of the road and the other vehicle did too.
End of Statement.

Driver of Unit 2 was sitting in the passenger seat of her vehicle (MN LIC LRH678).

According to Unit 2 driver she was driving Westbound on American Blvd. E. in the right turn lane to merge onto 12th Ave. S.

Unit 2 driver said she did not know Ewing's vehicle was in front of her in the right turn lane when she looked south on 12th Ave. S. to check for oncoming traffic.

Unit 2 Driver stated when her eyes/head were not facing forward when she collided with Ewing's driver side bumper causing minor damages.

On 04/19/25 at approximately 1245 hours, a two vehicle crash occurred at 86th Street and Humboldt Ave S. Unit #1 was traveling Westbound 86th Street, down the hill just over 35W and moved into the left hand turn lane to go South on Humboldt Ave. Unit #2 was traveling Eastbound on 86th Street. As the Units were getting close to each other, Unit #1 turned right into Unit #2 at the intersection. At the time of the accident, all parties involved stated that they were ok and did not need any medical attention which is why police were never called to the scene. Drivers to both Units exchanged information on scene, and both parties left. Driver of Unit #2 stated to have a headache and pain in left elbow. Passenger of Unit #2 drove the vehicle back to the residence. Passenger then drove driver of Unit #2 to the hospital. Driver of Unit #2 suffered a minor concussion and had a big bump on the left elbow. No broken bones or brain bleed. Spoke with driver of Unit #1 at their residence. Driver stated that they turned into Unit #2 and that everyone on scene was ok with no injuries. Driver of Unit #1 stated to be ok and did not need any medical attention. Both parties were provided the case number for insurance.
