Unit 1 was eastbound in the left lane on 82nd Street West attempting to turn left to go northbound on the 35W northbound entrance ramp. Unit 1 driver stated he could not remember what color the light was but thought it was green.

Unit 2 was westbound in the left lane of 82nd Street West attempting to go straight through the intersection with the 35W entrance/exit ramps. Unit 2 driver reported he had a solid green light.

Unit 1 driver stated he started his turn and then saw Unit 2 approaching. Unit 1 driver stated he was not able to reverse to get out of the way so he accelerated forward but collided with Unit 2.

Unit 2 reported he saw Unit 1 start his turn and that was when the front of his vehicle collided with the front passenger tire of Unit 1.

A witness reported he was behind Unit 1. Witness reported eastbound traffic had a solid green light and Unit 1 started to make the left turn in front of Unit 2. Witness reported that Unit 1 needed to yield to Unit 2.

The driver of Unit 1 had possible injuries and was transported by family. The front seat passenger of Unit 1 reported head pain and was transported by Allina Ambulance.

Unit 2 occupants both reported possible injuries and were evaluated by Allina Ambulance but were transported by family.

Unit 1 driver was cited for failing to yield to the right of way of Unit 2.
