

CITY OF BLOOMINGTON
MINNESOTA

Proclamation

Martin Luther King, Jr. Day January 15, 2018

WHEREAS, The City of Bloomington, through its Human Rights Commission, joins our Nation in recognizing January 15, 2018 as Martin Luther King, Jr. Day; and

WHEREAS, Bloomington recognizes that Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s life and work reflected the importance of making America a place where equality and justice, freedom and peace could grow and flourish;

THEREFORE, be it resolved that I, Gene Winstead, Mayor of the City of Bloomington, Minnesota, do hereby proclaim January 15, 2018 as

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. DAY

and asks all citizens of Bloomington to remember and reflect on the principles of racial equality and nonviolent social change espoused by Martin Luther King, Jr. and to rededicate themselves to the philosophy that we can all share the dream for a better life not only in Bloomington, but also in the world.

Dated this 2nd day of January, 2018.

Gene Winstead, Mayor
City of Bloomington, MN