Car Backs into Bakers Square Injuring 2 Adults Patrons

Just after 1 pm today, a 66 year old female from Apple Valley drove her 2011 Jeep Cherokee through the exterior wall of Bakers Square, 611 W. 98th Street. The vehicle struck two restaurant patrons who were sitting in a booth adjacent to the exterior wall.

The two individuals struck were a 90 year old male from Bloomington, and a 73 year old female from Onamia, were transported to Fairview Southdale with non-life threatening injuries.

The driver was not injured.

The Bloomington Police Department's Traffic Unit is investigating the cause of the accident. There are no charges at this time.
