

Voices Heard: A Conversation Between Youth and Cops

A Collaborative Presentation by Bloomington and Richfield Police Officers and Students

Wednesday
November 2nd, 2016

VOICES HEARD

A CONVERSATION BETWEEN
YOUTH AND COPS

Featuring:
Students from Kennedy, Jefferson,
Richfield, and RCEP
Officers from BPD and RPD

Wednesday Nov. 2nd 2016 Dinner: 5:30pm—6:00pm / Program: 6:00pm—8:30pm
Kennedy High School Auditorium, 9701 Nicollet Ave. S. Bloomington, MN 55420

A presentation of personal stories and skits by Bloomington and Richfield youth and police officers. These stories emerge from their participation in a workshop series that focuses on building trust and meaningful relationships through the mediums of creative writing and theatre.

Register at www.eventbrite.com under “Voices Heard: A Conversation Between Youth and Cops”

Dinner provided for the first 150 attendees.

