

Voluntary Short-Term Disability Insurance

Why Short-Term Disability Insurance?

Short-term disability insurance works alongside your long-term disability insurance plan to cover you during the period of time before your long-term benefits kick in, generally 90 days or more. The first few months of an illness or injury that takes you out of work may be costly. How would you keep your family afloat during this period of time without a paycheck?

Disability insurance is paycheck insurance. The plan will pay you a percentage of your salary if you were to suffer a covered disability and unable to work. Disability benefits can help you pay your mortgage or rent, health insurance payments, college tuition and more.

What are your chances of needing disability insurance?

Unfortunately, your chances are higher than you may think. In fact, the risk of long-term disability during a worker's career is greater than the risk of premature death. Yet most workers would never think of going without life insurance protection for their families.¹

- You have a 1 in 5 chance of becoming disabled between the ages of 35-65.
- You have a 1 in 7 chance of becoming disabled for at least five years before you turn 65.
- If you are age 30 right now, you have a 1 in 3 chance of having a long-term disability before you turn 60. At age 40, the odds are 3 to 10. At 50, it's less than 1 in 5.²

The question to ask yourself is: "Am I willing to take a risk with those odds?" Generally, people are not willing to take that risk, which is why they purchase disability insurance.

Voluntary Short-Term Disability Insurance

What causes disabilities?

Many think that accidents and injuries cause most disabilities. However, disability is more often caused by conditions such as arthritis, cancer, pregnancy and heart disease.³

Why purchase disability insurance through my employer?

This voluntary disability insurance plan is being offered through your employer so that you can purchase insurance at group rates instead of individual rates. The premium payments will be conveniently deducted from your paycheck.

Won't Social Security, Workers' Comp and other insurance plans cover me if I'm disabled?

- Health insurance only covers medical services and prescriptions, not income.
- Worker's Comp insurance provides benefits ONLY if a disability is a result of an on-the job accident, injury or occupational disease. Most disabilities are not job-related.
- Unemployment compensation is for those who are physically and mentally able to work.
- That leaves Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI). However, only 30-35% of workers who apply for SSDI are approved the first time.⁴
