Suspicious Person

On December 9th at approximately 4pm, an elementary school age girl was walking home from the bus stop near 99th Street and Rich Road, when a vehicle pulled up to her and the driver asked if she would help him look for a lost item. The student said no and continued walking towards her residence which was in sight. The student's father was outside their residence and saw the interaction. He assumed it was a neighbor and watched as the car continued down the street.

The subject was described as an older white male with grey/blonde hair, clean shaven, and did not wear glasses.

The vehicle was described as a grey/blue late 2000's Chevy Impala.

The Bloomington Police Department is investigating this incident as a suspicious person/incident. We are currently in contact with School Administrators who are assisting in our efforts to identify this subject as well as notify parents of any investigative updates.
